

Where the Action Is: Commercial Litigation in State Court/Views from the Bench

New York State Bar Association Commercial & Federal Litigation Section with the Onondaga County Bar Association, the Monroe County Bar Association and the Bar Association of Erie County present the first ever Upstate Commercial Division Bench/Bar CLE Program:

Where the Action is: Commercial Litigation in State Court / Views from the Bench

You are invited to be part of an unprecedented gathering of lawyers and judges from Central and Western New York to discuss matters of interest to commercial litigators and to meet and greet the three Upstate Commercial Division justices: Hon. Deborah H. Karalunas (Onondaga County); Hon. Kenneth R. Fisher (Seventh Judicial District) and Hon. John M. Curran (Erie County).

Location: Radisson Rochester Airport Hotel, 175 Jefferson Avenue, Rochester, NY

Date: November 8, 2007 (3:00 PM to 5:05 PM) Reception to follow

Fee: No Charge

Program Chair: David H. Tennant – Nixon Peabody LLP

Speakers: Hon. Deborah H. Karalunas
Hon. Kenneth R. Fisher
Hon. John M. Curran

MCLE: 2.5 hours CLE credit (including .5 hours ethics) and Reception

Under New York's MCLE rule, this transitional program has been approved for 2.5 credit hours for attorneys including those newly admitted; 2.0 hours in skills and .5 hours in ethics.

There is no fee to attend this program & receive CLE credit but you must attend the program in its entirety as NYS does not allow partial credit.

HOW TO REGISTER:

RSVP: To attend, please complete the PDF Registration form located at <http://www.nysba.org/wheretheactionis> and return to Leslie Dunn's attention via facsimile to (518) 463-4276 or by email at ldunn@nysba.org. Please mark your calendars.

Description: The focus of this program will be dissecting the anatomy of a commercial case and learning the perspectives of commercial division judges and experienced litigators to hone your skills as a litigator. The session will include a moderated discussion with lawyers and judges as well as Q & A.