Ed Menkin will be reading excerpts from his new memoir "Death on the Doorstep" and talk a little about the process of writing a lawyer's memoir and putting out a book on Amazon. Ed will be happy to sign books (which will also be available for purchase at the author's discounted price). Pizza and soft drinks will be available.

A darkly funny, insightful, compelling, and well-written book about what it's really like to practice as a criminal defense attorney on the front lines of American justice. From the profound (a man accused of murder for shooting a masked gunman who attacks him and his wife on their doorstep) to the ridiculous (a major Federal investigation into fishermen shooting cormorants), Ed Menkin's memoir is told with humor, wisdom, and insight. It will have you questioning everything you ever thought you knew about how our criminal justice system really works. It brings to vivid life lawyers, judges, and crooks, revealing their character, their demeanor, their authentic speech, and their seriocomic lives.
