We thank our friends at the

for their assistance in providing this CLE.

What You Learn: A guide for attorneys, judges, and business people regarding the major issues of diversity and inclusion in the 21st Century. A review of the provisions of the main federal and NYS laws concerning provisions of anti-discrimination, anti-harassment and anti-retaliation will be discussed. Plus: The program also covers protection for sexual orientation, equal pay, current status of the federal Equal Rights Amendment, Americans with Disabilities Act and provisions under the federal Family Medical Leave Act and NYS Paid Leave, and the law as it pertains to website accessibility for those with qualifying disabilities. And: Stick around for a reception to meet the author and hobnob with the OCBA Diversity & Inclusion Committee – our hosts for this event!

This CLE is appropriate for attendance by newly admitted as well as established attorneys.
